Frameworks and strategies for showcasing your unique abilities

WATCH THIS

Looking for a way to stand out in the job or internship search but not sure what to do? Creating a virtual portfolio can be a great way to showcase your skill set with industry focused projects! Check out this workshop to learn what should be in your virtual portfolio, different platforms to create one, and how to market it on LinkedIn, Handshake, and your resume. Plus, you'll get exclusive access to resources from Isenberg's own, Professor Carey Baldwin!

CHECK IT OUT

Check out our resource, Consider This: Analysis of a Big 4 Job Posting! We'll read through a job description step-by-step and break it down into simple questions that help you decipher what the job description means and what the employer is looking for. Then you'll take these steps and apply them to ANY job description!

COACH TIPS OF THE WEEK

Alaina: With ongoing market disruptions in 2025, staying informed is more important than ever. Follow industry news, track hiring trends, and upskill in emerging areas to stay competitive.

Chelsea: Be sure to review the action verbs on your resume! Ensure they are aligned with the job description or look at the Isenberg Specialized Master's Resume Guide for a list.
